

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

United States of America,
Plaintiff,

v.

Ivan Gonzalez-Torres
Defendant

Case No. 00CR094-02 (CC)

PETITION FOR REMISSION

TO THE HONORABLE COURT:

Now come, the United States of America, by its undersigned attorneys, petitions this court pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3573, as amended by P.L. 100-690, November 18, 1988, for remission of the monetary imposition imposed in this case.

1. On September 8, 2000 a judgment was entered in this Court against the above defendant, imposing a special monetary assessment of $100.00 and a fine of $2,500.00.

2. According to information obtained defendant was deported on September 2002.

3. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C § 3573 upon petition by the Government that reasonable efforts to collect the fine or assessment are not likely to be effective the court may, in the interest of justice, remit all or part of the unpaid portion of the fine or special assessment, including interest and penalties.

4. Public Law 100-690 (November 18, 1988) amends 18 U.S.C. § 3573 by providing that this statue shall apply to all fines and assessments, irrespective of the date of imposition.

5. The United States Attorney has determined that there is no reasonable likelihood that expending further efforts to collect this fine would produce any revenue to the United States. Any further efforts would, in fact, be contrary to the interests of the United States because such efforts would needlessly expend resources that could be better directed to areas with greater potential for recovery.

WHEREFORE, the United States Attorney petitions this Honorable Court for an order pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3573, as amended, remitting the unpaid balance of the fine.

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 8th day of December, 2004.
